

COMPANY CODE OF CONDUCT

Attendance, Working Hours & Leave Policy

1. Office Working Hours

The official office working hours are: 9:00 AM - 5:00 PM.

Employees are expected to be present and ready to work from 9:00 AM.

Employees are required to maintain punctuality, complete their required working hours, and follow the attendance and leave procedures outlined in this policy.

2. Monthly Late & Half-Day Allowance

Each employee is permitted a maximum of 3 late/half-day instances per month.

The 3 instances are a combined allowance and may be used for either late arrivals or half-days/early departures.

Examples: 3 late arrivals = 3 instances; 2 late arrivals + 1 half-day = 3 instances; 1 late arrival + 2 half-days = 3 instances; 3 half-days = 3 instances.

Important: Arrival at or before 10:15 AM is not considered late for the purpose of the permitted late allowance.

3. Late Arrival Policy

A. Arrival Between 9:00 AM and 9:30 AM

Arrival between 9:00 AM and 9:30 AM is normal and acceptable. It is not late, does not count toward the allowance, and has no deduction. Normal departure is 5:00 PM.

B. Arrival After 9:30 AM and Up to 10:15 AM

This is not considered late and does not count toward the allowance. However, the employee must work until 6:00 PM.

C. Unpermitted Late — After 10:15 AM to 12:30 PM

Arrival after 10:15 AM and up to 12:30 PM without prior permission is an Unpermitted Late and counts as one attendance violation.

D. Arrival After 12:30 PM

Arrival after 12:30 PM without prior permission is Unpermitted Leave for that working day and is not treated as a late.

4. Early Departure / Half-Day Policy

A. Arrival Between 9:00 AM and 9:30 AM: Required departure is 5:00 PM. Leaving before 3:50 PM without prior permission is an unauthorized early departure/half-day violation.

B. Arrival After 9:30 AM and Up to 10:15 AM: Required departure is 6:00 PM. Leaving before 4:50 PM without prior permission is an unauthorized early departure/half-day violation.

5. Attendance Violation Penalty

Attendance violations include unpermitted late arrival between 10:15 AM and 12:30 PM, unauthorized early departure, unauthorized half-day, or leaving the workplace during required working hours without permission.

The first 3 attendance violation days within a month will result in a total salary deduction of ₹2,000.

After the first 3 violation days, an additional ₹1,000 will be deducted for every additional violation day.

Calculation: ₹2,000 for the first 3 violation days + ₹1,000 for every additional violation day.

Example: 5 violation days = ₹2,000 + ₹1,000 + ₹1,000 = ₹4,000 total deduction.

Total Violation Days	Total Deduction
1 day	No deduction
2 days	No deduction
3 days	₹2,000
4 days	₹3,000
5 days	₹4,000

Total Violation Days	Total Deduction
6 days	₹5,000
7 days	₹6,000
8 days	₹7,000
9 days	₹8,000

6. Monthly Permitted Leave

Each employee is entitled to 1 permitted leave day per month.

This is general personal/planned leave and is separate from emergency leave and sick leave.

Therefore, each employee may have 1 permitted leave day + 1 emergency leave day + 1 sick leave day per month.

Planned leave should be requested in advance and approved by the reporting manager or management.

7. Unpermitted Leave

Any absence from work that has not been approved and does not fall under an approved leave category will be considered Unpermitted Leave.

Arrival after 12:30 PM without prior permission is also classified as Unpermitted Leave for that day.

For every unpermitted leave day, a deduction of ₹1,000 per day will apply.

Unpermitted leave is separate from the attendance violation penalty for unpermitted late arrivals and unauthorized early departures.

Unpermitted Leave	Deduction
1 day	₹1,000
2 days	₹2,000
3 days	₹3,000
4 days	₹4,000
5 days	₹5,000

8. Emergency Leave

Each employee is entitled to 1 Emergency Leave Day per Month.

Emergency leave is intended for genuine and unforeseen situations requiring absence from work. The employee must inform management as soon as reasonably possible.

Unused emergency leave does not automatically carry forward unless specifically approved by management or required by applicable law.

9. Sick Leave

Each employee is entitled to 1 Sick Leave Day per Month.

Sick leave should only be used when the employee is genuinely unable to work due to illness. The employee must inform management as soon as reasonably possible.

Management may request appropriate medical documentation where reasonably necessary, particularly in cases of repeated or extended sick leave.

10. Work From Home (WFH)

Employees may work from home for a maximum of 3 days per month, subject to prior management approval.

Priority will be given to employees who, during the previous month, did not take leave, did not use emergency or sick leave, did not exceed the permitted late/half-day allowance, maintained satisfactory attendance, and completed assigned work satisfactorily.

Management reserves the right to approve or reject WFH requests based on work and business requirements.

WFH is considered a working day and not a leave day. Employees working from home must remain available during required working hours and complete assigned responsibilities.

11. Annual Paid Leave

Each employee is entitled to 24 days of paid leave per year.

Annual leave should be requested in advance and approved by management.

Leave approval will depend on business requirements, project deadlines, team availability, existing approved leave, and operational requirements.

The treatment of unused annual leave, including carry-forward or expiry, will be governed by company policy and applicable labour laws.

12. Permission Requirement

Employees must obtain prior permission before arriving after 10:15 AM, leaving the office early, taking a half-day, taking planned leave, working from home, or leaving the workplace during required working hours.

Permission should be obtained before the event whenever reasonably possible.

In a genuine emergency where prior permission is not possible, the employee must inform management as soon as reasonably possible.

13. Attendance Records

Employees are responsible for accurately recording time of entry, time of exit, leave, half-days, late arrivals, early departures, WFH days, and approved permissions.

Employees must not manipulate, falsify, or misrepresent attendance records. Intentional falsification may result in disciplinary action.

14. General Conduct & Accountability

Employees are expected to maintain punctuality, professionalism, responsibility, accountability, respect for colleagues and management, and compliance with company policies.

Repeated attendance violations may be considered during performance evaluations, salary reviews, promotions, bonuses/incentives, and employment continuation decisions.

Serious or repeated violations may result in disciplinary action, up to and including termination, subject to applicable law and the employee's employment agreement.

15. Exceptional Circumstances

The Company recognizes that genuine emergencies and exceptional circumstances may occur.

Management may, at its reasonable discretion, make exceptions to this policy in genuine and exceptional circumstances.

Any exception must be specifically approved by management and does not automatically create an entitlement or precedent for future situations.
